

TaeKwonDo Times Magazine World Wide Correspondent Application

TaeKwonDo Times Magazine began twenty-six years ago and is the only world wide magazine for TaeKwonDo. Our goal is to help people understand the martial arts and to promote their benefits to a world wide audience.

We are soliciting stories that highlight the life changing effects of training in the Martial Arts. Real life stories about families training together. How people have overcome hardship or other difficulties through their training. We feel these real life stories reaching a world wide audience will have an unbelievable impact.
